

Mission: To promote and support the study of history, law and civics for the development of responsible and informed citizens who are committed to democratic principles and active engagement in representative government.

<https://nvcce.org/>

Nevada Center for Civic Engagement is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization
#81-3948081

P. O. Box 3344
Reno, NV 89505

Information on the We the People programs can be found at www.civiced.org

- 43 high schools competed December 16th 2017 at UNR in Reno and Arbor View High School in Las Vegas
- Dozens of Elementary and Middle Schools are using the curriculum throughout Nevada and thousands throughout the country.
- We the People encourages critical thinking, knowledge of the U. S. Constitution and how it correlates to current events. It creates cohesiveness. Students who are involved in We the People get involved in community, the program prevents bullying and other negative activities.
- For additional information, please call or write Professor Sondra Cosgrove at 702.335.4911 and email her at sondra.cosgrove@gmail.com; Marc Picker, Esq. At 775.846.3306 and email at mpickerwtp@gmail.com; Professor Michael Green at 702.538.6687 and email him at michael.green@UNLV.edu; Kathleen Dickinson can be reached at 702.419.4555 and kriedi@gmail.com

The Nevada Center for Civic Engagement budget is $170,000 per year which includes travel for students to the State and National Competitions; textbooks for classes; staff; liability insurance; technology to reach teachers statewide; webmaster/social media expertise etc.